Our Manufacturing Process:

Development

This is the stage where we work with our clients to understand their vision and ideas. We create design sketches and patterns based on the client's needs and personalize it for production.

Sampling

Once the design is personalized, we create a prototype of the garment. We provide the sample to the client for review and make necessary changes.

Grading

After the sample is approved, we grade and create the patterns as per Customer size chart, this involves adjusting the pattern to ensure proper fit across all the different sizes.

Material Sourcing

Once grading is complete, we source materials needed for production. We ensure that the materials are of high quality and meet the client's requirements.

Cutting & Stitching

The pattern is printed on the material and then cut to the required size. The pieces are then sewn together to the final product.

Quality Control

Every product goes through a thorough quality control process to ensure that the finished product meets our high standards.

Packing & Shipping

After complete checking, the product will be packed according to the instructions by client and will be handed over to the shipping agency.
